

My Friends

Harold is a happy, healthy giraffe. He loves spending time with his friends and he thinks they are really special. Sometimes, when they fall out, Harold gets upset. They always try to make friends again.

Write and draw about your friends here.

Encourage your child to talk about different qualities in friends, for example - kind, shares, etc. Help them to think of ways to deal with difficult situations that might arise with their friends.

Talk about these things with a grown-up.
