

HISTORY

Polo was first played in Peru, thousands of years ago. On each team, there were more than 100 players and was considered to be a battle. Instead of using a mallet, players would use tree branches. The game had little to no rules. The game quickly spread across Europe, slowly evolving to become the game we play today.

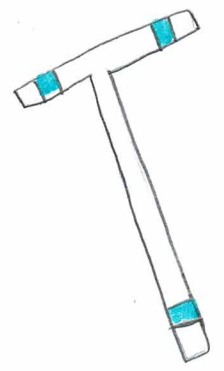

Origin

- Polo was first played in Persia (Iran).
- Polo was first thought to become like the game we know today, in the 1800's.

HOW TO PLAY

P
O
L
O

LET'S
PLAY !!