

Tick two scales that prove the statement is correct.

Two tins are heavier than the watermelon.

A.

B.

C.

The children below are comparing the weight of classroom items.

Zain

One bottle is lighter than one paint pot.

Lily

One bottle is heavier than one paint pot.

Who is correct? Explain why.

Look at the scales below. Choose three items to make the statement correct.

One _____ is heavier than one _____ but lighter than one _____.

Find 3 possibilities.

How many cubes does the teddy bear weigh?
Explain how you know.
